

Good for the Economy.
Good for the Environment.

HOUSE DISTRICT 5

Representative Pam Marsh

Oregon's Clean Energy Policies Drive Economic Growth

District 5 Benefits:

1,559 Clean Energy Jobs***
in the overlying Senate District (SD 3)

$6 million Private Investment in solar and wind energy projects

2.1 MW Generation Capacity
from installed solar and wind energy

STATE- WIDE BENEFITS

55,179
total clean energy jobs

$6.7 billion
solar & wind energy
project investments

3,230 MW
solar & wind energy capacity

$258 million public revenue from renewable energy projects

*Includes jobs in the renewable energy, energy efficiency, grid/storage, and clean vehicles industries

SOURCES

Jobs: 2018 U.S. Energy Employment Report, www.usaenergyjobs.org, data current through 2017;
Private Investment & Capacity: Kevala, www.cleanenergyprogress.com, data current through 2016;
Public Revenue: Renewable Northwest Oregon Factsheet, www.renewablenw.org, data current as of the 2016-17 tax year

Created November 2018